BENJAMIN HILL UPDATES ON PLANNED INAUGURAL DRILL PROGRAM WITH OUTLINE OF PROSPECTIVE TARGETS

Vancouver, British Columbia (October 19, 2021) - Benjamin Hill Mining Corp. (CSE: BNN) (OTCBB: BNNHF) (“BHM” or the “Company”) Benjamin Hill Mining Corp. is pleased to announce that drill locations have been finalized for the upcoming inaugural drill program on our Sonora Gold property in Sonora, Mexico.

The objective of the drill program is to test the continuity of high-grade mineralized shoots nested within vein and vein breccia sets. The program has been specifically designed to better understand the behavior of mineralization at depth and test structures that are thought to be open down dip and on strike. A total of 15 drill holes are initially planned, spread across the three most prospective exploration areas on the property. Targets and scale of the program are subject to change at the direction of management in collaboration with the experienced geological team.

Greg Bronson, President of Benjamin Hill Mining Corp. states: "Everyone at Benjamin Hill is anticipating the start of the inaugural drill program on our very prospective Sonora Gold Property. Benjamin Hill Geologists have done an excellent job exploring the property and preparing the drill program to give us the best opportunity for success. On a recent visit to the property and seeing the size and extent of the mineralized structures, I share an overwhelming level of excitement to getting started with the next phase of exploration on the Sonora Gold property".

Benjamin Hill is planning to announce a non-brokered private placement financing to support the next stage of exploration and drilling on the Sonora property.
